What Do I Need?

If registering in person at a parish Registrar of Voters office, you are required to prove age, residency and identity. You may submit your current Louisiana driver's license, birth certificate or other documentation which sufficiently establishes your identity, age and residency. You must register to vote using your homestead exemption address. However, if you do not claim homestead exemption and reside at more than one place in the state with an intention to reside there indefinitely, you may register at only one of the places at which you reside.

When Can I Register?

Louisiana statutes requires you to be registered 30 days prior to an election to be eligible to vote in that particular election. Upon completing a registration form, you will receive your voter identification card in the mail within two to 4 weeks after approval from the state.
